

SECTION 2 SUMMER ADDITION 2018

CELEBRATING VOLUNTEERING

Congratulations to all these volunteers who have recently achieved Saltire Awards which are endorsed by the Scottish government to encourage young people from the age of 12-25 to volunteer. www.saltireawards.org.uk

North Highland College Work & Lifeskills Class with their class tutor, Fional Buchan [left] they participated in bulb planting at Dunnett Forest

Young Caithness Befrienders who are involved with the intergenerational project at recognition event to say THANKS

Young volunteers from many different local organisations are seen here receiving their Saltire certificates at Wick High School Community Campus.

Local contact for Voluntary Award recognition

Reminder to individuals and groups to get in touch if you are registered for Saltire or Highland Volunteer Award? Awards can only be issued if I am contacted! Let me know please. volunteering@cvg.org.uk

Saltire Awards

Volunteer coaches with Wick Amateur Swimming Club

L-R Amy Williamson, Emma Fishenden, Angus Hendry & Sarah Harper

Reiss Youth Club assistants L-R Lucie Ross, Shona Miller

& Paige Rosie

Sophie Irvine-Dunnett volunteers with Riding for the Disabled receiving from C Patterson from CVG

Jack Gomersall receiving Saltire Award for volunteering at Little pick at Wick River

Left-North Highland College Personal Empowerment Class presented with certificates for a fundraising event within the College.